11/83

THE SYMPHONIC WIND ENSEMBLE
Donald C. Clough, Conductor beginning it's ninth season

Sunday, November 20, 1983, 3:30 PM, Genesee Valley Center

PROGRAM

march, The Merry Widow — paraphrased by Harry L. Alford

overture to Peter Schmoll — Carl Maria VonWeber

Original Dixieland Concerto — arr. by John Warrington based on: Jazz Me Blues, Ballin' the Jack, and Original Dixieland One-step featuring: Bob Turmell-Clarinet, Ed Laisy-Tenor Sax, Maurice Mueller-Trumpet, Fred Gebstadt-Trombone, Bob Shaw-Tuba, John Reid-Drums

Symphonic Suite — Clifton Williams
Intrada
Chorale
March

tuba soli, Camptown Basses — Acton Ostling conducted by David E. Ryan, Assistant Conductor featuring: Bob Shaw, Brian Moe, Eugene H. Behme, David Candy, Don Clough, tubaists

American Folk Suite — Harold Walters
Across the Wide Missouri
The Erie Canal
Black is the Color of My True Love's Hair
Whoopee Ti - Yi - Yo

Winter Wonderland — arr. by Jerry Nowak

The Christmas Song — arr. John Cacavas

Santa Claus Is Comin' To Town — arr. Paul Yoder

America, The Beautiful — arr. by Carmen Dragon

march, Washington Post — John Philip Sousa

* * * * * * *

The Symphonic Wind Ensemble will perform on Tuesday, December 6 at 7:30pm at the Eastland Mall and on Wednesday, December 7 at 7:30 pm at Grand Blanc High.

* * * * * * *

The Symphonic Wind Ensemble is an adult Community Band. Each and every member donates his or her time to practice and perform concerts. Your financial support is greatly appreciated. Donations may be made by placing same in the baskets in front of the concert area, or stop by our premium table. Register your name, address, and phone number and receive a bumper sticker for $1.00 donation or a SWE "T" shirt for $5.00 donation. Thank you and Merry Christmas!!!!!!!